

My Brother's Keeper, Inc. Skills Building Course

February 8, 2007
Richmond, VA

African American Cultural Competence to Eliminate Health Disparities

Designed for public health professionals who work with African Americans, this interactive, one-day skills building course emphasizes a developmental process for gaining cultural and linguistic competence by exploring, assessing and developing individual and organizational cultural awareness, knowledge and skills.

To find out more information about this free course, contact

Laveta Thomas
My Brother's Keeper, Inc.
CBA<sup>2</sup> Project
404 Orchard Park
Ridgeland, MS 39157
601-957-3625 ext. 108